Easter Activities

Choose activities from the grid below. How many can you do? Remember you can send any of your work into us so we can see it on Facebook. We miss you all, keep smiling! Your Teachers ©

Design a daily fitness circuit with 5 different stations plus a water/rest station

Remember to organise it so you have different activities to work on different muscles. You might like to use Joe Wicks' workouts for inspiration.

Family Tree

Research and create your family tree. If you don't want to do your family, you could do a famous family like The Simpsons.

Write a book review

What book have you read and loved recently? First write a book review and edit it before adding your own review on Toppsta

https://toppsta.com/books/review

*Please be mindful of protecting your identities online - never give out your full name or any personal

details or information

Grow your own

Feel like getting out into the garden? Why not grow something? You could start your own vegetable patch, grow sunflowers or even cress. You could also experiment with which is the best area to plant things.

Cook a meal

Design a menu and cook a meal for your family to share. This is a great way to practise your maths skills of weighing and measuring and telling the time.

Craft

Craft

Use your empty toilet roll holders to make these cute bunny prints.

Hand written letters

Can you write a letter to a friend or a family member who you can't see to cheer them up, perhaps you could include a picture or something you have made? Or you could write a letter or card to the NHS?

Diary

Can you record a written or video diary of your time in isolation? This will be something talked about in history lessons of the future!

Quiz

Design a quiz for your family. You will need to think of a set of questions and answers that can be grouped into categories. You could even think of a prize or forfeits for getting answers wrong!

Craft

Make an Easter wreath from old birthday cards, magazines and wrapping paper.

Time to talk

Play a board game, FaceTime a member of your family you have not seen this week, enjoy a family indoor picnic or have a family dinner.

Bake

Baking always makes me happy!
You could try some of these recipes even if you have limited
ingredients.

Make your own board game

Can you create your own board game for your family to play?
You could even include some learning in it like spelling or maths questions to challenge yourself.

Craft

Make your own toilet roll bird feeder.
